Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR HOME

The Court at the admission stage made the following:

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

WRIT PETITION NO.14696 of 2005

ORDER:

The petitioners' grievance is that they have been harassed by the second respondent by being called to the Police Station everyday and are being made to wait thereat for a couple of hours on each occasion. They state that on enquiries, they learnt that the son of the first and the second petitioners is involved in a crime and a crime No.67 of 2005 in the second respondent's Police Station has been registered against him under Section 420 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code, along with two others. The petitioners state that they have nothing to do with the conduct of the son of the first and the second petitioners and they are not liable to be harassed. They also state that the third petitioner is the daughter who has nothing at all to do with the event and she is also being harassed. The petitioners, at the admission, herein seek a liberty to make a complaint to the first respondent against the second respondent.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is disposed of. The petitioners may make complaint to the first respondent. It shall be considered expeditiously and in any event within a week from the date of such representation, appropriate administrative action shall be taken by the first respondent.
